A Catechetical Workshop for Elementary Teachers

The Call and Duty of the Catholic School Teacher as Catechist

Presented by: Reverend G. Dennis Gill
Director, Office for Divine Worship
Archdiocese of Philadelphia

Today, it is very easy to separate who we are from what we do and what we believe from what we teach. This epidemic situation comes from the pervasive disintegration of the Truth. And frankly, we have simply become comfortable with it. Catholic School Teachers as catechists are called to something more. In fact, it is our duty and an expectation to align our way of life with that of Jesus, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. This presentation will focus on the aim of living in a manner worthy of the ministry of the catechist, a constant call to conversion!

Monday, November 19, 2018 (9am-2pm) at the Brothers House, Archbishop Carroll High School, Radnor. (Take the main driveway; after you pass the School, the Brothers House is on the left. Park in the East Parking Lot.)

Cost is $20. Morning coffee and lunch included.
