Special Invitation to Students from Archbishop Perez

Listen to the words of our Archbishop on the importance of being Missionary and encouraging everyone to be a part of MCA!

A Lenten Litany for a Humble Heart

Set up an altar with an open Bible, a crucifix, candles [unlit], a globe to represent the missions and a World Mission Rosary, which can be obtained from the MCA Office.

LEADER: A litany is a type a prayer. One person reads a list of prayers and the group responds with the same answer. Today, we will pray a Lenten Litany for Ourselves and for Children in the Missions. During Lent, we are asked to reflect on ways that we can live out our Catholic faith more fully. Every day, we are given opportunities to put others—and Jesus—first. To do so, we must ask for the grace to be humble.

READER 1: As we listen to God's word today, let us be mindful of His message, asking ourselves, "Do I live with a humble, peaceful heart?"

READER 2: A Reading from the Book of James

JAMES 3:13-18

Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show his works by a good life in the humility that comes from wisdom. But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. Wisdom of this kind does not come down from above but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace. The Word of the Lord. ALL: Thanks Be to God.

Pause for silent reflection

READER 1: In this Lenten Litany, we pray for ourselves and for all the children of the world whose lives we touch through our membership in the Missionary Childhood Association.

READER 2: As we pray for ourselves, our response is: ALL: Remind me to be humble, Lord Jesus.

READER 1: When I desire to always be first. ALL: Remind me to be humble, Lord Jesus.

READER 2: When I feel the need to be preferred over others.

ALL: Remind me to be humble, Lord Jesus.

READER 1: When I have fear of making public mistakes. ALL: Remind me to be humble, Lord Jesus.

Reader 2: When I fear being ridiculed by others. ALL: Remind me to be humble, Lord Jesus.

READER 1: As we pray for children in the Missions, our response is:

ALL: Give me a humble heart, Lord Jesus.

Reader 2: That I may put the needs of others before my own.

ALL: Give me a humble heart, Lord Jesus.

Reader 1: That by living a holier life I may bring others to holiness.

ALL: Give me a humble heart, Lord Jesus.

Reader 2: That I may remember daily to pray and sacrifice for children in the missions ALL: Give me a humble heart, Lord Jesus.

LEADER: Lord Jesus, as Missionary Disciples, You call us to a life of humble service to others. We can learn this by following Your example. This Lent, we pray that we put aside our own self interests and develop a habit of putting the needs of others first—even those who live so far away that we may never meet them. We know they are your children, too. Bless us all as we grow in Your humble love.

ALL: Amen.

Crown of Thorns Activity

A great Lent and Mission activity, that is so inexpensive and easy to make, you can make them with your whole classroom! [They're also great for at home, but easy enough for a classroom environment]

HOW IT WORKS: Every child makes the Crown of Thorns and take it home at the beginning of Lent.

Each time that child does a good deed or makes a sacrifice during Lent, they may remove a thorn from the crown to help Jesus! Students can remove TWO thorns if they make a special sacrifice for the Missions.

What you will need:

- Cheap Play-Doh [red, yellow, blue]
- Toothpicks (cut in half)
- Small paper plates

Instructions are simple!

After mixing the Play-Doh to make a brown color, distribute to the children, with 40 half pieces of tooth picks and a paper plate. Let each student get creative in creating their thorns. Allow each student to take their crown home and don't forget to make one for your classroom.

Need a bit of inspiration on what to give up for Lent?

Here are some ideas:

+ Delectable treats: candy, chocolate, coffee, dessert or another special treat you have regularly

+ Limit or cut screen time [TV, computer, iPad, notebooks, etc.]

+ Limit or cut out social media

+ Give up a favorite toy or stuffed animal

+ Bad habits [complaining, fighting, raising your voice in anger, not listening, etc.]

SACRIFICE THIS LENT, Give up something you love and give to MCA to help children in Mission Lands!

Mission Saint: Lent

Saint Katharine Drexel

Our own Philadelphia Mission Saint

Francis Drexel, Katharine's father, was a wealthy Philadelphia banker, gave generously to charity. Francis' wife, Emma Bouvier, opened their home three times a week to give food and clothes to the poor. Their daughter, Katharine was formed by this example.

In her travels to America West, Katharine saw the squalor and poverty of the Native American reservations. After her father's death in 1885, she used her inheritance to fund schools for the native people.

In 1887, Katharine went to visit Pope Leo XIII to beg for Missionaries that could help reawaken the desire of her youth and the native people she wanted to help. The Pope looked at Katharine and said, "Why don't you go to them yourself?" and become a Missionary? Katharine took his words to heart.

Katharine began her work knowing that her strength was in the Eucharist. She wished to share the love of Christ through her missions. Schools were a priority.

In 1894, Mother Katharine took part in opening the first Mission boarding school called Saint Katherine's Indian School, in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

In 1897, Katharine asked the Friars of St. John the Baptist Province of the Order of Friars Minor to help staff a Mission for the Navajos in Arizona and New Mexico, and she would help finance their work with the Pueblo Native Americans.

By the time of her death, she had more than 500 Sisters teaching in 63 Schools throughout the country and she established 50 Missions for Native Americans in 16 different states.

Feast Day: March 3 Patron of: Racial Justice and Philanthropists Birth: November 26, 1858 Death: March 3, 1955

"If we wish to serve God and love our neighbor well, we must manifest our joy in the service we render to Him and them. Let us open wide our hearts. It is joy which invites us. Press forward and fear nothing." -Saint Katharine Drexel

Mission Focus: Zimbabwe

Sacrifice for the people of Zimbabwe this Lenten Season

Children in Zimbabwe, in Southern Africa, are just like you! They go to school, have chores, like to make new friend . . . but they and their families, unfortunately, have big issues that make their life hard.

People in Zimbabwe, deal with water scarcity and easily at get cholera and other waterborne diseases. They also have a high rate of HIV/AIDS infections—almost 15% of the population is known to have the virus. AND most families living in Zimbabweans, especially those in the rural areas, cannot afford health care—three quarters of them lving on about $3 per day for all their needs.

All of these sobering facts, and many others, have Zimbabweans fleeing from their country in record numbers . . . millions of people have left. This has led to a "brain drain" in the society as most of the people who can afford to leave the country were the best educated.

At last report, MCA members worldwide donated $235,000 to build new classrooms at schools, drill for clean water, stock feeding programs, furnish schools and early education centers, and more.

At the same time, MCA members of Zimbabwe sacrificed $3,000 from what little they have to their brothers and sisters in need around the world. While a majority of the country's population is Christian, only about 7.3% of the people of Zimbabwe are Roman Catholic. Of course, this matters little to the Catholic Missionary Sisters supported by the Missionary Childhood Association [MCA] as they serve all children, especially those considered to be "differently abled".

Missionary Sisters, like the Sisters of the Infant Jesus [SJI], are hard at work to "bring Christ to the people" in their own language. The SJI Sisters first began as teachers and nurses, says their first work was They soon saw the need for pastoral work among girls who had left school very young to be wives and mothers. These girls had no skills, educationally or vocationally.

Sister Theresa Camillo, SJI, says, "Initially, we began hosting evening meetings—clubs—to teach these young women homemaking skills, like knitting, sewing, and embroidering. Soon these women were teaching their artistry to their own children, helping to uplift the status and provide a vocation for the local girls. "

The women and girls were also able to earn extra money to support their families by selling their creations The Sisters now also run a home for mentally challenged children called the Alfred Walters Hostel. These children, who have no family to care for them, depend on the Sisters for their spiritual, emotional, and physical care.

Recently, Missionary Childhood Association members from the local parish of Saint John made donations to help children like those in the hostels of Zimbabwe. If children in Mission lands can make sacrifices for those that need help, can you and your family here in Philadelphia do that too? Especially during Lent?

Remember the Missions during Lent!

Lent Missionary Prayer Jesus, help me during this time of Lent to be your Missionary. I offer my prayers and love to all those who are in the Missions.

I want to deepen my relationship with you. Help me to reflect on the things I may do that hurt you, my neighbors, my friends and others.

Help me to thank you and see You in everything and every person I encounter in during the day. *I*fmen.
