

Religion Guidelines

Archdiocese of Philadelphia

These Religion Guidelines are those published in 2000; reformatted into trimesters in 2006; revised in 2012, 2013 and 2022. Each Grade contains the following:

- The core content with references to scripture

To help teachers in their presentations, the outline is referenced to scripture which suggests certain passages that complement a specific topic in the outline. Teachers are encouraged to use the scripture passages for personal prayer as well as for reflection and for sharing with students. This could help the children become increasingly more familiar and comfortable with scripture and its importance in the lives of both the Church and of those who are followers of Jesus Christ. The numbers on the right side of the page in parentheses correspond to the paragraph numbers in the Catechism of the Catholic Church which treat of a specific subject or concept. This to help the teachers in their own background reading. It is not intended that students be taught directly from the Catechism.

- The Liturgical Year (Ordinary Time; Advent; Christmas Season; Lent; Holy Week; Triduum; Easter Season; Saints and Holy People) is developed according to its appropriate placement in each trimester. The importance of Sunday is stressed.
- Summaries of the feasts of Mary and lives of the Saints
- Praying with Children

Each Grade is required to learn certain of our Traditional Catholic Prayers. The versions we should teach can be found in either the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops), Appendix B: Traditional Catholic Prayers or the Compendium: Catechism of the Catholic Church, Appendix A: Common Prayers (English and Latin).

Hopefully, using these guidelines as the basis of teaching the subject of Religion will contribute to developing a strong religious foundation in the Catholic Faith for each student, and invite the student into the mission of the Church which is the mission of Jesus Christ. It is our hope that each student will come to a deeper understanding of the Catholic Faith and be able to articulate this faith. The faith believed is the faith celebrated in one's full, conscious and active participation in the sacramental life of the Church. The faith believed is the faith lived in a moral life that demonstrates the social consequences of living according to the demands of the Gospel. It is a life that serves the needs of others with care and compassion. The faith believed is the faith prayed in attitudes of adoration, praise, thanksgiving, and awe for the glory of God.

Feast: liturgies of major importance

Memorial: liturgies celebrating minor events in the life of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of saints significant to a local country, church or religious community

September 21: St. Matthew, Apostle

St. Matthew was born in Capernaum and was also known as Levi. Jesus chose him to be one of the twelve apostles. Before his work with Jesus, he was a tax collector and therefore most likely more educated than some of the other apostles. Matthew was a witness to Jesus' death and resurrection. He first preached the Good News that Jesus taught in Judea, and later traveled to other countries. He wrote the Gospel of Matthew, which is the first of the Synoptic Gospels since he likely wrote it fifteen to twenty years after the resurrection of Jesus. Although we do not know for certain how he died, he is believed to have been martyred. In Christian art, St. Matthew is symbolized by an angel.

October 18: Feast of St. Luke, Evangelist

Luke was born in Antioch, Syria, and was the only Gentile Christian among the Gospel writers. He wrote the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. Paul calls him "our beloved physician," and thus he is the patron saint of physicians and surgeons. He became a missionary companion of St. Paul, and even accompanied him on his last journey to Rome. Luke's Gospel is unique in that he includes six miracles and eighteen parables not found in the other Gospels. Luke also writes more about Mary and about Jesus as a child. Each of the four Gospel writers has a unique symbol and Luke's is an ox, symbolizing sacrifice.

October 28: Feast of Ss. Simon and Jude, Apostles

Simon is shown on all four lists of Apostles. He is called the Zealot, after a sect of Jewish nationalists, who thought that the Messianic Promise meant that the Jews would be free and independent of the foreign domination of Rome. St. Jude is referred to as Jude in the Gospel of Luke and Acts of the Apostles. However, in the Gospels of Mark and Matthew he is referred to as Thaddeus. He was the brother of James, the Apostle. Jude traveled to Mesopotamia to preach and Simon went to Egypt. Eventually, they worked together evangelizing in Persia until they were martyred.

IV. SAINTS AND HOLY PEOPLE

November 30: Feast of St. Andrew, Apostle

St. Andrew was one of the Twelve Apostles and the brother of St. Peter. In the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus sees Andrew and Peter (called Simon) fishing and calls out to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men" (Matthew 4:18-20). In the Gospels of John, we are told that Andrew was a disciple of John the Baptist. When John pointed to Jesus and said, "Behold the Lamb of God," Andrew left John to follow Jesus (John 1:35-40). However, we know very little about his life in the early Church. It is commonly believed that he preached the Gospels in Greece and Turkey and was crucified at Patras.

December 27: St. John, Apostle and Evangelist

John, the brother of James, was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus. He and his brother were disciples of John the Baptist, but Jesus called them to follow Him with Peter and Andrew. Jesus, while dying on the cross, told John to look after Mary His mother. He was called "the beloved disciple." John is given credit for writing the Gospel of John, three Epistles, and the Book of Revelation. Tradition tells us that he was the only Apostle who died peacefully of old age, in the year 100AD. In art, his symbol is an eagle.

April 25: St. Mark the Evangelist

St. Mark was one of the early disciples of Jesus and the author of the Gospel of Mark. In the first years after the Ascension of Jesus, Mark traveled to Rome with the apostle Peter as an interpreter and wrote down many of Peter's sermons. This formed the basis of Mark's gospel, which he wrote in Greek in order to convert the Gentiles to Christianity. Later, in 49 AD, St. Mark went to North Africa and founded the Church of Alexandria. He became the first bishop there and is considered the founder of Christianity in Africa. In art, St. Mark is symbolized by a winged lion. While we do not know when he died, St. Mark is believed to have been martyred near Alexandria.

May 3: Ss. Philip and James (the Lesser), Apostles

Philip and James were two of the Twelve Apostles. Philip was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and was called to be a disciple (John 1:43). It was Philip who told Jesus they could not feed five thousand people with just a few loaves and fishes (John 6:7). Tradition holds that Philip helped spread Christianity to Greece and Syria and was likely martyred there. James the Lesser is mentioned very little in the Gospels. However, he wrote the first Christian epistle, the Epistle of James, and may have been the first Bishop of Jerusalem.

May 14: St. Matthias, Apostle

When Judas betrayed Jesus, the Apostles only numbered eleven. After Jesus' Ascension, they sought out another worthy person to take his place. Peter insisted that the new Apostle be a man who had been a disciple from the beginning and had accepted Christ's teaching about the Eucharist. They nominated Matthias and Joseph called Barsabbas. After praying, they cast lots and Matthias was chosen (Acts 1:23-26). Although little else is known about his life, he is thought to have spread the Gospel in Judea and later the area where the country of Georgia is now. He was martyred and buried there.

VI. MARY

- A. BLESSEDNESS OF MARY (BYM #51-56)
1. Mary emphasized in Scripture as "Blessed" Lk. 1:42
 2. Dogma of the Immaculate Conception focuses on Mary as full of grace, as "preserved free from all stain of original sin" from the moment of her conception Lk. 11:27-28
 3. The Immaculate Conception prepared Mary for her greatest privilege: Motherhood of Jesus, the Savior. (490-93)
 4. The dogma of the Assumption focuses on Mary's participation in her Son's Resurrection and anticipates the resurrection of other Christians. BYM #57-61, (966, 974)

It is the oldest liturgical feast of Mary in the Church dating to about the fifth century.

B. DAYS IN HONOR OF MARY

August 15 Solemnity of the Assumption

Pope Pius XII, on November 1, 1950, infallibly defined what Catholics always believed: Mary was assumed body and soul into heaven. (CCC #966)

August 21 Our Lady of Knock

On this day in 1879, Our Blessed Mother appeared with St. Joseph and St. John the Evangelist to fifteen people at the Church of Saint John the Baptist in Knock, County Mayo Ireland. Behind them was a plain altar with a cross and a lamb (which represented Jesus as the Lamb of God.)

August 22 Memorial of the Queenship of Mary

In 1954, Pope Pius XII established this feast which honors Mary who was crowned Queen of Heaven and Earth by Jesus when she on the day of her Assumption.

September 8 Feast of the Birth of Mary

Mary was the daughter of Saints Ann and Joachim. They prayed that God would bless them with a child, and He rewarded their faithfulness with a daughter set apart to be the mother of the Son of God. Because of this, she was conceived and born immaculate and full of grace. We do not know from the Gospels the exact date of Mary's birth. However, Christians have celebrated it on September 8th since the 7th century. Mary's birth is one of only three celebrated on the liturgical calendar.

September 15 Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows

Today, we remember how Mary, as the mother of Jesus, suffered greatly. There are seven events in particular that we recognize, called the Seven Sorrows. The Sorrows, which are all found in the Gospels, are the prophecy of Simeon (Lk. 2:34-35), the flight into Egypt to escape Herod (Mt. 2:13-21), the loss of Jesus for three days in the Temple (Lk. 2:41-50), meeting Jesus on the road Calvary (Jn. 19:17), the crucifixion and death of Jesus (Jn. 19:18-30), holding Jesus when He was taken down from the cross (Jn. 19:39-40), and Jesus laid in the tomb (Jn. 19:40-42). St. Bernard wrote, "Truly, O Blessed Mother, a sword has pierced your heart... He died in body through a love greater than anyone had known. She died in spirit through a love unlike any other since His." Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us.

October 7 Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary

This feast was established by Saint Pius V. Pope Gregory XIII later named this the Feast of the Holy Rosary. This feast invites everyone to meditate upon the mysteries of Christ, following the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary who was so singularly associated with the incarnation, passion and glorious resurrection of the Son of God. (Christian Prayer, 1976, p. 1285)

November 19 Our Lady of Divine Providence

On November 19, 1969 Pope Paul VI declared Our Lady Mother of Divine Providence principal patroness of the island of Puerto Rico, since November 19 was the date that the island was discovered. The image of Our Lady that is so special to the people of Puerto Rico shows the Divine Child sleeping peacefully in the Virgin Mary's arms. However, the name and worship of Our Lady of the Divine Providence originated in Italy in the 12th century, then spread to Spain and then to Puerto Rico.

November 21 Memorial of the Presentation of Mary

The Presentation of Mary is a unique feast day. Although the event is not in the Bible, we learn from other sources that Mary's parents, Ann and Joachim, offered Mary to God in the Temple when she was only three years old. We celebrate this event because it helps us to understand Mary's unique holiness, which was nurtured from the very beginning of her life.

December 8 Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

Under the title of the Immaculate Conception, Mary is revered as the patroness of the United States and of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. In 1854, Pope Pius IX declared: AFrom the first moment of her conception, the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, by a unique grace and privilege of God and in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the human race, was preserved from all stain of Original Sin.@ (CCC #490-91)

December 12 Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our Lady appeared to Juan Diego, a poor Mexican Indian, on December 9, 1531. Mary told Juan to build a Church. Juan went to the Bishop to tell him the Lady=s request. The bishop did not believe him. Three days later, when Juan again went to the bishop and opened his cloak to give to the Bishop roses which the Lady had arranged in Juan=s cloak, there was a picture of Mary on his cloak. The Bishop believed and built a church in honor of Mary. We honor Our Lady of Guadalupe because we recognize her concern for all people especially the suffering and the poor. December 9 is the feast of Saint Juan Diego. She is the patroness of the Americas.

January 1 Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God

This feast of Mary is considered to be one of the oldest and most important feasts of Our Lady. In 431, the Council of Ephesus met to correct false teachings about Christ’s divinity. The Council affirmed that Jesus is true God and true man. Since Mary is the Mother of Jesus, who is the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, she can truly be called the Mother of God. Devotion to Mary as the Mother of God continued to spread from this time to the present.

B. DAYS IN HONOR OF MARY

February 2: Purification of Mary/Presentation of the Lord

Mary and Joseph presented the newborn Jesus at the Temple, according to Jewish law, forty days after his birth. They sacrificed a pair of turtledoves, according to the custom of the poor. At the temple, they met Simeon, a man whom God had promised would not die until he saw the Savior. Upon seeing Jesus, Simeon prayed, “Lord, now let your servant go in peace; your word has been fulfilled” (Luke 2:29). Simeon also prophesied to Mary, “A sword will pierce your soul, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed” (Luke 2:34-35). The presentation of Jesus in the temple is the Fourth Joyful Mystery of the Rosary.

February 11 Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes

Mary appeared to a fourteen year old girl named Bernadette Soubirous on February 11, 1858 in Lourdes, France. Our Lady appeared dressed in white with a blue sash, yellow roses at her feet and a rosary in her hand. Mary appeared eighteen times to Bernadette. The Lady told her many things among them that, although Bernadette would not find happiness in this life, she would find it in Heaven. She told her to pray for sinners and to do penance. The Blessed Mother told Bernadette to have a chapel built at the site where she appeared and that processions were to be held. When Bernadette asked the Lady what her name was, she said, I am the Immaculate Conception. Through Bernadette, the Blessed Mother called sinners to a change in heart, to reach out and care for the sick, the poor, and those who had lost hope. Each year millions of people make their way through the mountainous country of southeastern France to the shrine at Lourdes. They come to ask Jesus through the intercession of his Mother for a cure of their body or soul.

March 25 Solemnity of the Annunciation

The Annunciation is the feast commemorating the appearance of the Angel Gabriel to Mary. The angel told her that she had been chosen to be the Mother of Jesus Christ, the Son of the Most High God. Mary, through the power of the Holy Spirit, became the Mother of Jesus.

May 31 Feast of the Visitation Luke 1:39-56

The Presentation of Mary is a unique feast day. Although the event is not in the Bible, we learn from other sources that Mary’s parents, Ann and Joachim, offered Mary to God in the Temple when she was only three years old. We celebrate this event because it helps us to Lord and obeying His will in all things.

May or June Immaculate Heart of Mary

(Saturday following the Second Sunday after Pentecost)

Pope In the Gospel we read that Mary treasured all things in her heart. In 1944, Pope Pius XII consecrated the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and recommended devotion to Mary’s Immaculate Heart. Although the world was at war when the recommended renewed devotion to Mary, this devotion is not just for times of war but for all times.

July 16 Memorial of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Mount Carmel is located on the coast of Israel, north of the city of Haifa. This was the place where the prophet Elijah confronted the pagan prophets of Baal. Around 1154, the Order of Mt. Carmel was founded at this ancient shrine. This contemplative order, called Carmelites, began to celebrate its patronal feast on July 16. According to the tradition of the order, on that day in 1251, Mary appeared to St. Simon Stock, a Carmelite in England. She gave him the brown scapular as a sign of her love and protection. A full scapular is a long piece of cloth worn over a religious habit. Today a scapular may be a medal or two pieces of cloth connected by a cord. Carmelites and others who wear the scapular honor the Blessed Mother by wearing it.

June 29: Ss. Peter and Paul, Apostles

Ss. Peter and Paul are two of the most important figures in the early Church. Peter, also called Simon Peter, was one of the first disciples of Jesus. He was a fisherman and Jesus called him and his brother Andrew to be fishers of men (Matt. 4:18-19, Mk. 1:16-17). Still, Peter struggled with doubt and feelings of unworthiness. In the Gospel of Matthew, Peter nearly drowns when he tries to walk on water like Jesus (14:28-31). In the Gospel of John, Peter does not want Jesus to wash his feet at the Last Supper (13:2-11). Most famously, he denied being a disciple of Jesus three times after Jesus was arrested. Despite all this, Peter knows Jesus to be the Son of God, and for this reason Jesus says to him “On this rock I will build my Church.” In this way, Peter is chosen as the first pope. After the Ascension, Peter focused his evangelization efforts on the Jewish community. He was crucified upside down in Rome around 64AD.

Unlike Peter, Paul was not a firsthand witness to Jesus’ life and death. He was from Tarsus and at first, he persecuted the early Christians. Then he met the risen Christ on the road to Damascus and changed his life (Acts 9:1-31, 22:1-22, 26:9-24). He wrote fourteen books in the New Testament and focused his evangelization efforts on the Gentiles. Paul also helped the early Church work through important issues, such as whether or not to follow the Mosaic laws of the Jews. It is believed he was martyred in Rome shortly before Peter’s death in 64AD.

July 3: St. Thomas, Apostle

St. Thomas was one of the Twelve Apostles and is best known for doubting the risen Jesus. He first appears in the Gospel of John after the death of Lazarus and Thomas expresses his wish to follow Jesus unto death (11:16). However, Thomas has difficulty in believing and understanding all that Jesus says about his future death. Most famously, Thomas refuses to believe some of the other Apostles have seen Jesus resurrected. He says, “Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hands into his side, I will not believe.” When Jesus appears to Thomas and invites him to touch his wounds, Thomas finally believes (John 20:24-29). After the Ascension, Thomas heads east to spread Christianity. It is known that he made it into Iran, and tradition holds that he made it as far as Kerala, India. He is thought to have been martyred by a spear in 72AD.

July 25: St. James (the Greater), Apostle

James, son of Zebedee, was one of the Twelve Apostles. He and his brother John joined Jesus early in His ministry. James was a witness to the Transfiguration. From the Gospels, we know that James had a strong personality. He asked to be seated next to Christ in heaven, and earned the nickname Son of Thunder after telling Jesus he would call down fire from heaven on some unwelcoming Samaritans. James put his zeal to good use, possibly spreading the faith all the way to Spain. The famous ancient pilgrim trail called the Way of St. James ends at Santiago de Compostela, where the relics of St. James are kept. He is believed to be the first Apostle to be martyred, around 44AD.

August 24: St. Bartholomew, Apostle

St. Bartholomew is perhaps the least known of the Twelve Apostles. He is mentioned by name in the Synoptic Gospels and in the Acts of the Apostles. In the Gospel of John, he is assumed to be Nathaniel, brought to Jesus by Philip when he was sitting under a fig tree (1:43-51). Like Thomas, Bartholomew went east to evangelize and may have brought the Gospel of Matthew to India. Tradition holds that he may have been martyred by whipping and crucifixion in Armenia or Turkey.

VI. SOCIAL JUSTICE

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society.... In this time of widespread violence and diminished respect for human life and dignity in our country and around the world, the Gospel of life and the biblical call to justice need to be proclaimed and shared with new clarity, urgency, and energy.@
